

John Mizzi
Head of Industry Practices, U.S. Middle Market
Zurich North America

Skills and experience

John Mizzi is the U.S. Middle Market Head of Industry Practices for Zurich North America, where he is responsible for developing and driving a strategic focus on industry specialization and differentiation. He and his team cultivate portfolio insights, develop new products, drive underwriting, risk engineering and claims expertise and deliver a collaborative value chain for brokers and customers in the middle market segment.

Mizzi joined Zurich in 2021 from Blackboard Insurance Company in New York, where he was Executive Vice President and Head of Growth and Underwriting. He also has held key leadership roles at CNA and Chubb during his 30-year career and previously served as the underwriting manager for Zurich Global Express.

Educational background

Mizzi received his bachelor's degree in business administration in finance from Villanova University and a master's degree in business administration in marketing from St. John's University in Jamaica, New York.